

Mary Tedesco, Genealogist

Mary is professional genealogist, speaker, author and former television co-Host on the national PBS series "Genealogy Roadshow." She is honored to serve DAR as state vice regent of Massachusetts, national chair of the Insignia Committee, member of the DAR Tours and Events Committee and state chair of two Massachusetts state committees. Her previous service includes past national chair of the Service to America Committee, past Massachusetts state organizing secretary, organizing regent and past chapter regent of the Hannah Winthrop Chapter and past president of the Massachusetts DAR Cameo Society. Her Massachusetts Society C.A.R service includes senior state curator and past senior state historian.

In 2019, Mary was selected Massachusetts DAR State Outstanding Junior. Outside of DAR, she is a Councilor of the New England Historic Genealogical Society and a President's Council member of Bishop Fenwick High School in Massachusetts. Mary holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Boston University, a Certificate in Genealogical Research from Boston University's Center for Professional Education and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Notre Dame.